RACING GOSSIP.

In Charade Messrs. Hinde & Baker have secured a prize in the way of a sire. I spoke of him, in a news and off hand way, as old Charade, a few days ago. He deserved more considerate comment. Charade is nine years old and by Charaxus—Ada Belle by Eolus. He was a race horse of sparkling speed and performance. So was his sister, Ma Belle. Charade raced six seasons and won nearly $75,000 in his turf career. His best racing pieces were such as mark the great racehorse. He won the Tidal Stakes of 1892, one mile in 1:41½, with 122 pounds up. Tammany and Patron were behind him. He was 20 to 1 that day. Charade's Metropolitan Handicap of 1893 was one of the most brilliant of American races. The one and one-eighth miles was run in 1:52¼. He won all the way and St. Florian (a great colt), Loantaka, La Tosca and His Highness were behind him. He was 8 to 1 in the betting. Charade was, perhaps, the longshot star of the American turf.

The horse's turf history, in succinct form, is shown by the table below:

Year	Age	Races	Won	Second	Third	Unp
1891.....	2	29	7	0	5	17
1892.....	3	30	5	0	10	15
1893.....	4	30	8	11	4	7
1894.....	5	19	3	3	5	8
1895.....	6	39	7	14	4	11
1896.....	7	18	5	0	2	11
Totals		162	35	28	30	69

There are the keenest of winning strains of racing blood in Charade and Millbrook, though it lost a great young sire when Patron died, gains in the acquisition of Charade.

Riley Grannan is still going to the Morris Park races. He gets in the gates nowadays by virtue of a temporary injunction. The question of its permanence will be settled Saturday. Grannan is likely to win the case. Equity is all with him. Grannan is not charged with corrupt practices. His offense was that of a $500 present to a jockey in 1895. Generally turf cases in legal avenues are slurred and badly treated. Then, too, the turf should govern itself. But there are fundamental principles that only the law of the land can settle. Grannan's case has some of such principles. If Grannan has money and can "pay the piper" the young Kentuckian would do the racing world a sharp service by pushing his case to the bitter end—through the best lawyers in the United States. Ex-President Benjamin Harrison is the lawyer of all lawyers best fitted to handle a great case and command respectful attention from every court before which he appears. The Grannan case might be moulded so as to define racing and its so-called gambling side. If such a phase in legislation could be reached Grannan's case would go on record as a "cause celebre."

The dregs of turf comment blames Tom Griffin for buying The Dragon out of a selling race at Latonia last Tuesday and fails to blame the Fleischmann's for claiming Sir Vassar out of the same race. What rot! The life of the selling race game is purchase. If this were not true, stake horses would be placed in "soft spots" and turf speculation petrified. The Dragon won. He was owned by Fleischmann & Son and entered for $800. Sir Vassar ran second. He was entered at $700—a high price—because he is a bad horse. Griffin bid up and bought The Dragon for $1600, a reasonable price. Clearing away all financial smoke, Griffin traded Sir Vassar for The Dragon and gave $460 for his bargain. Griffin made a good deal. The Fleischmann's, having Sir Vassar in the stable, announce that they will use him as a jumper.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Cushing string will winter at St. Paul as of old.

Hunger, "Hops" Laudeman's Hanover—La-Juive filly, broke down in her last Latonia race.

The California Jockey Club stake entries close today. Horsemen should not forget the fact or overlook the $10,000 worth of free entrance stakes.

The Kentucky Derby for 1898 got 179 nominations as against 159 for 1897, the Clark Stakes secured 158 against 137, and the Kentucky Oaks 119 to 116.

Enquirer, Cincinnati, O.—DAILY RACING FORM's Quarterly and Half Yearly will be out on time. The Singery, Md., track is a so-called outlaw course.

Frank Kelly, Eugene Leigh's competent foreman, is at Ideal Park with a division of the Leigh stable, headed by Myth, Irksome and Horse Shoe Tobacco.

COUGLE'S LATEST LONGSHOT.

It rained hard at Ideal Park track Friday and the going was very heavy. Still the racing was good, two of the finishes being close.

Charles Cogle took quite a bit out of the ring over the victory of his filly Nannie Dunn. She was in the first race along with a cheap lot of maidens and as good as 10 to 1 was laid against her. At post time 6 to 1 was the best price in the ring. Armstrong rode the filly and did it none too well, yet she won by a short head from Katie L, who could not have been worse handled.

The other close finish came out of the fourth race, a seven furlong condition affair for all ages. Roller's Nairette was the favorite and won by a narrow margin from Cynthia H. Clay's judgment and strong riding of the filly on the end won the race.

Roller also took another purse with Vanessa in the two-year-old race. She was perfectly at home in the going and beat the Oakley Stable's good thing, Domitor, rather handily. The latter was backed from 2 to 1 to 7 to 5 and Vanessa was at some stages of the betting as good as 10 to 1.

Florence P beat Sidkel and Anna Mayes in the second event through Caywood's good judgment, and Swordsman, ridden by the same boy, won the last race with something to spare.

Roller had quite a good day. He started out by holding an election bet made by J. E. Cushing and W. Oliver of the Harlem Stable. It is rumored that Roller parlayed the wager on his two. If so, the bet winner has got a mildly good chance to collect.

Winner—Ch. f, by Prince Royal—Palmetto.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving to their limits. Katie L was the best and seemed to be winning at head of the stretch, but boy went to pieces when the test came. Nannie Dunn was played for a good thing and proved one. Snag, slow to get on his stride ran a good race and was coming fast on the end. Boarder had speed but no endurance. It was a bad lot. All were staggering at finish.
Overweights—Julius Marks, 1½ pounds.

Winner—B. m, 5, by Housatonic—Edna.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; next three driving hard. Caywood rode a beautiful race on Florence P. never making a move until stretch was reached. Then the mare galloped over the tired lot in front. Sidkel slipped about in the going. He ran a game race though under the weight. Anna Mayes seemed to have her field beaten at head of stretch, but when straightened away tired badly. Demirep and Floreanna also retired in stretch. Cherrystone was under drive last three furlongs. Lew Hopper had no speed. He ran without blinkers; usually he wears and races better with them.
